

LEGISLATIVE AND POLITICAL ADVOCACY

AN OVERVIEW: 2018 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

MATT SIVERLING

- Legislative Advocate since 2004
- Represent numerous other statewide associations
- Prior to lobbying, worked as a policy advocate for a Constitutional Officer in the Capitol
- Graduated from University of California, Davis, BA Political Science

2017-18 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Once the clock struck midnight on August 31st, the Session was officially concluded. At this time, any bill that has not cleared votes on both Floors will be dead with no opportunity to move.

COMPARISON OF PAST AND PRESENT LEGISLATURES: THEN

COMPARISON OF PAST AND PRESENT LEGISLATURES: NOW

SETTING THE STAGE

Over the two year Session...

Assembly now allowed to introduce 50 bills (+25%) 3,200-4000 bills

Senate members each allowed to carry 40 bills (1,600 max)

SPONSORED BILLS

- Senate Bill 1246 (Gaines) Refund Claim Form

SPONSORED BILLS

- Assembly Bill 3068 (Daly) Auditor Independence

SUPPORTED BILLS

- Assembly Bill 2558 (Brough) Combination Offices

FOR NEXT YEAR

- Assembly Bill 271 (Caballero) PACE

SUPPORTED

- Assembly Bill 3005 (Chen) Juvenile Case files

OTHER CRITICAL BILLS

- Assembly Bill 3037 (Chiu) Redevelopment Redux

MORE IMPORTANT BILLS

- Assembly Bill 1250 (Jones Sawyer) Contracting

BULLETS DODGED

- Assembly Bill 2508 (Brough) Property Tax Bill Data

MORE BULLETS DODGED

- Assembly Bill 448 (Daly)

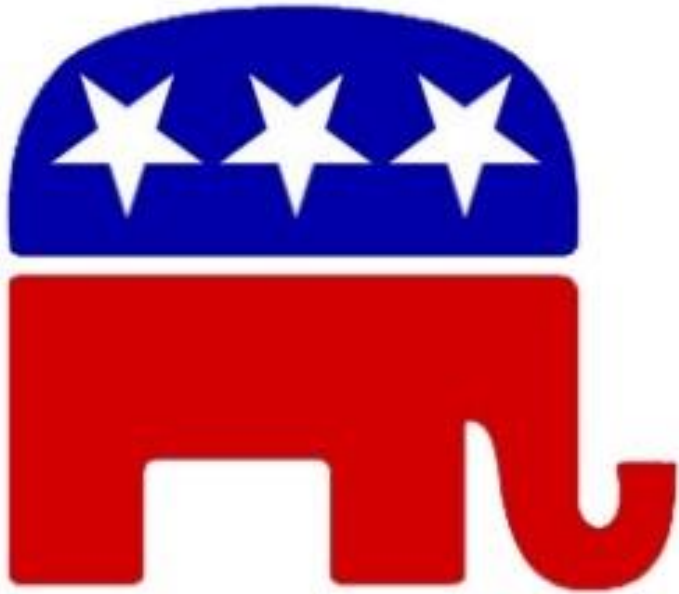

UPCOMING ISSUES

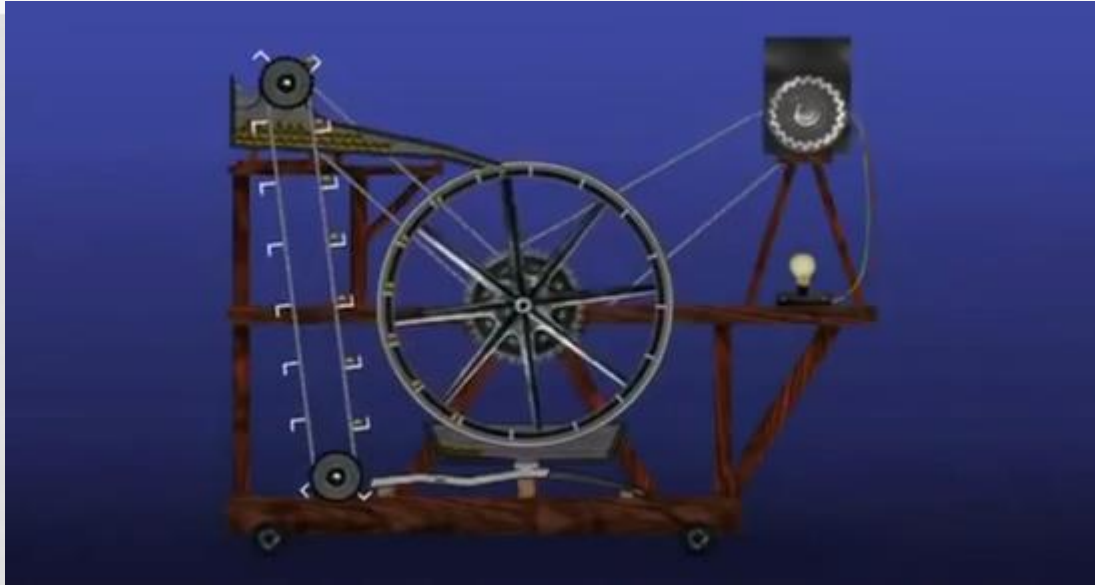

- Proposition 6 (Transportation Tax repeal)

2018 ELECTION

IN CLOSING...

The Legislative Process is a “perpetual motion machine”

“The Only Constant is Change”

Most bills are modest changes to law

“Bite Around the Edges”

Cannot get too high over one victory or too low over a setback...

There is always next hearing, next House, next Year!

Q AND A

- Matt@ysladvocacy.com
1127 11th Street, Suite 210, Sacramento, CA 95814

